Subject: Docket No. CC-2023-OGR-01-001

CAUTION: This email originated outside the State of Idaho network. Verify links and attachments BEFORE you click or open, even if you recognize and/or trust the sender. Contact your agency service desk with any concerns.

James and Kourtney, attached are:

1. The affidavits of publication from the Argus Observer for the pre-application filing notice of intent to develop and the notice of intent to file the application;
2. Certified mailing receipts for the post-filing mailing of the application and notice to uncommitted owners.

Let me know if you need further information. I expect to receive the affidavit of publication for the post-filing notice from the Argus Observer in the next couple of days and will forward it to you upon receipt.

Thanks,
Mike

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the policy of the new administration. The President states that he is committed to the principles of liberty and justice for all, and that he will work to maintain the Union. He also mentions the issue of slavery, which was a major point of contention at the time.

2. The second part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Treasury, dated January 1, 1861. It provides a detailed account of the financial state of the country. The report mentions the national debt, which had increased significantly since the end of the Civil War. It also discusses the various sources of revenue, including taxes and customs duties.

3. The third part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 1, 1861. It discusses the various land and mineral resources of the country. The report mentions the discovery of gold in California, which had led to a large influx of settlers. It also discusses the issue of land ownership, particularly in the western states, where there was a lot of speculation and speculation.

4. The fourth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Navy, dated January 1, 1861. It discusses the state of the navy, which had been significantly weakened since the end of the Civil War. The report mentions the need for new ships and equipment, and the importance of maintaining a strong navy for the protection of the country's interests.

5. The fifth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the War, dated January 1, 1861. It discusses the state of the army, which had been significantly weakened since the end of the Civil War. The report mentions the need for new recruits and equipment, and the importance of maintaining a strong army for the protection of the country's interests.

6. The sixth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the State, dated January 1, 1861. It discusses the state of the country's relations with other nations. The report mentions the importance of maintaining good relations with the major powers, and the need to protect the country's interests in foreign affairs.
