Hi Ms. Gross,

I will pass your message on. I will also ask about when a recording will be available.

On the OGCC home page, <https://ogcc.idaho.gov/>, in the Upcoming Meetings box, you will see a link that says "Watch Hearing on Facebook Live".

On the OGCC Hearings page, <https://ogcc.idaho.gov/administrative-hearings/>, in the schedule for this docket, in the status column, there is a link that says, "Watch Hearing on Facebook Live".

I hope this helps and I apologize for the technical issues.

Thank you for the link Kourtney.

Can you please pass on or record it as public comment that the live feed was very challenging to watch this morning. The feed started almost half an hour late. I fear that we may have lost viewers during that time. It took me multiple attempts to figure out how to watch as the DL website did not have a link on their events calendar, the OGCC home page did not have a link. The Administrative Hearings page had a link to Facebook but when I got there I didn't see a live feed for a very long time. After that the feed kept starting and stopping, looping, etc, and I don't even know if I got to hear all of the testimony. So far I have viewed for 3 hrs and I know there are very few people who are able to drop everything to do that. I have three children at home and have had to put everything on hold this morning to try to watch this hearing. Mick Thomas said that this meeting will be videoed and can be replayed, but I am wondering how soon that will happen because I would think this should be made available to the public before public testimony is to be taken at the Fruitland City Hall meeting this evening at 6:00.

Thank you for documenting my concerns.
