I am writing to confirm receipt of the Comprehensive Objection and Notice of Use Conflict I submitted via email today regarding the James 1-10 Well Application. Please respond to this email to confirm that these documents have been officially logged into the case file. Please be advised that these submissions constitute a public record under Idaho Code § 74-102. As such, I am requesting that they be preserved and indexed as part of the formal record of objection for the upcoming Commission review.

I have retained timestamped copies of these communications for my permanent records and have archived them with third-party counsel for redundancy.

I look forward to your confirmation of receipt and the assigned case or tracking number for this objection.

Respectfully,

Janice Havens
