This matter came before the Idaho Oil and Gas Conservation Commission (“Commission”) on November 28, 2018, as a duly scheduled agenda item of the Regular Meeting of the Commission. Pending before the Commission was the JOINT MOTION TO ACCEPT SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND CONSENT ORDER (“Joint Motion”) filed on November 20, 2018, by Complainant Idaho Department of Lands, and Respondents AM Idaho, LLC and Alta Mesa Services, LP. Complainant presented oral argument in support of the Joint Motion. Respondents were present at the meeting and had the opportunity to present oral argument, but did not.

The administrative record in this matter consists of the ADMINISTRATIVE COMPLAINT, filed October 5, 2018; the SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT AND CONSENT ORDER, effective November 15, 2018 (“Settlement Agreement”); and the Joint Motion. Based on the Commission’s review of the record and the oral argument taken on November 28, 2018, and finding good cause therefor, the Commission, in compliance with the requirements of IDAPA 04.11.01.612, 613, and 614, unanimously voted to grant the Joint Motion and accept the terms of the Settlement Agreement, which is incorporated by reference into this Final Order, in its entirety.

This is the Commission’s final order in this matter. “The final order of the commission shall not be subject to any motion for reconsideration.” I.C. § 47-328(5). However, any party aggrieved by this Final Order may appeal it to the district court by filing a petition in the district court of the county in which: 1) the hearing was held, 2) the final agency action was taken, 3) the aggrieved party seeking review of the order resides, or 4) the real property that was the subject of the agency action is located. I.C. §§ 67-5270 and 67-5272. An appeal must be filed within twenty-eight (28) days of the service date of this Final Order. See I.C. § 67-5273(2). The filing of an appeal to the district court does not itself stay the effectiveness or enforcement of the order under appeal. I.C. § 67-5274.

Dated this 30th day of November, 2018.
